At an early age, I discovered that I was bored, a lot. I was raised by strict bustling parents in pursuit of their American Dream. I was secluded from my adventurous nature— but most importantly this meant, high expectations. From strict Asian parents, and myself. My boredom fueled my imagination, I was reading packaging labels and appreciating the art and crafts of design at an early age. Over my lifetime, it took a substantial amount of convincing to pursue a career in the arts, I never imagined the day I could be able to communicate messages aesthetically using my knowledge and application of art and design.
